AN EXPERIENCED DEVELOPER

As a successful division of the Fairmont Group, Fairland is a progressive company providing innovative land and housing solutions for all Australians. It is our long standing commitment to create positive opportunities for all our home/land purchasers and project partners.

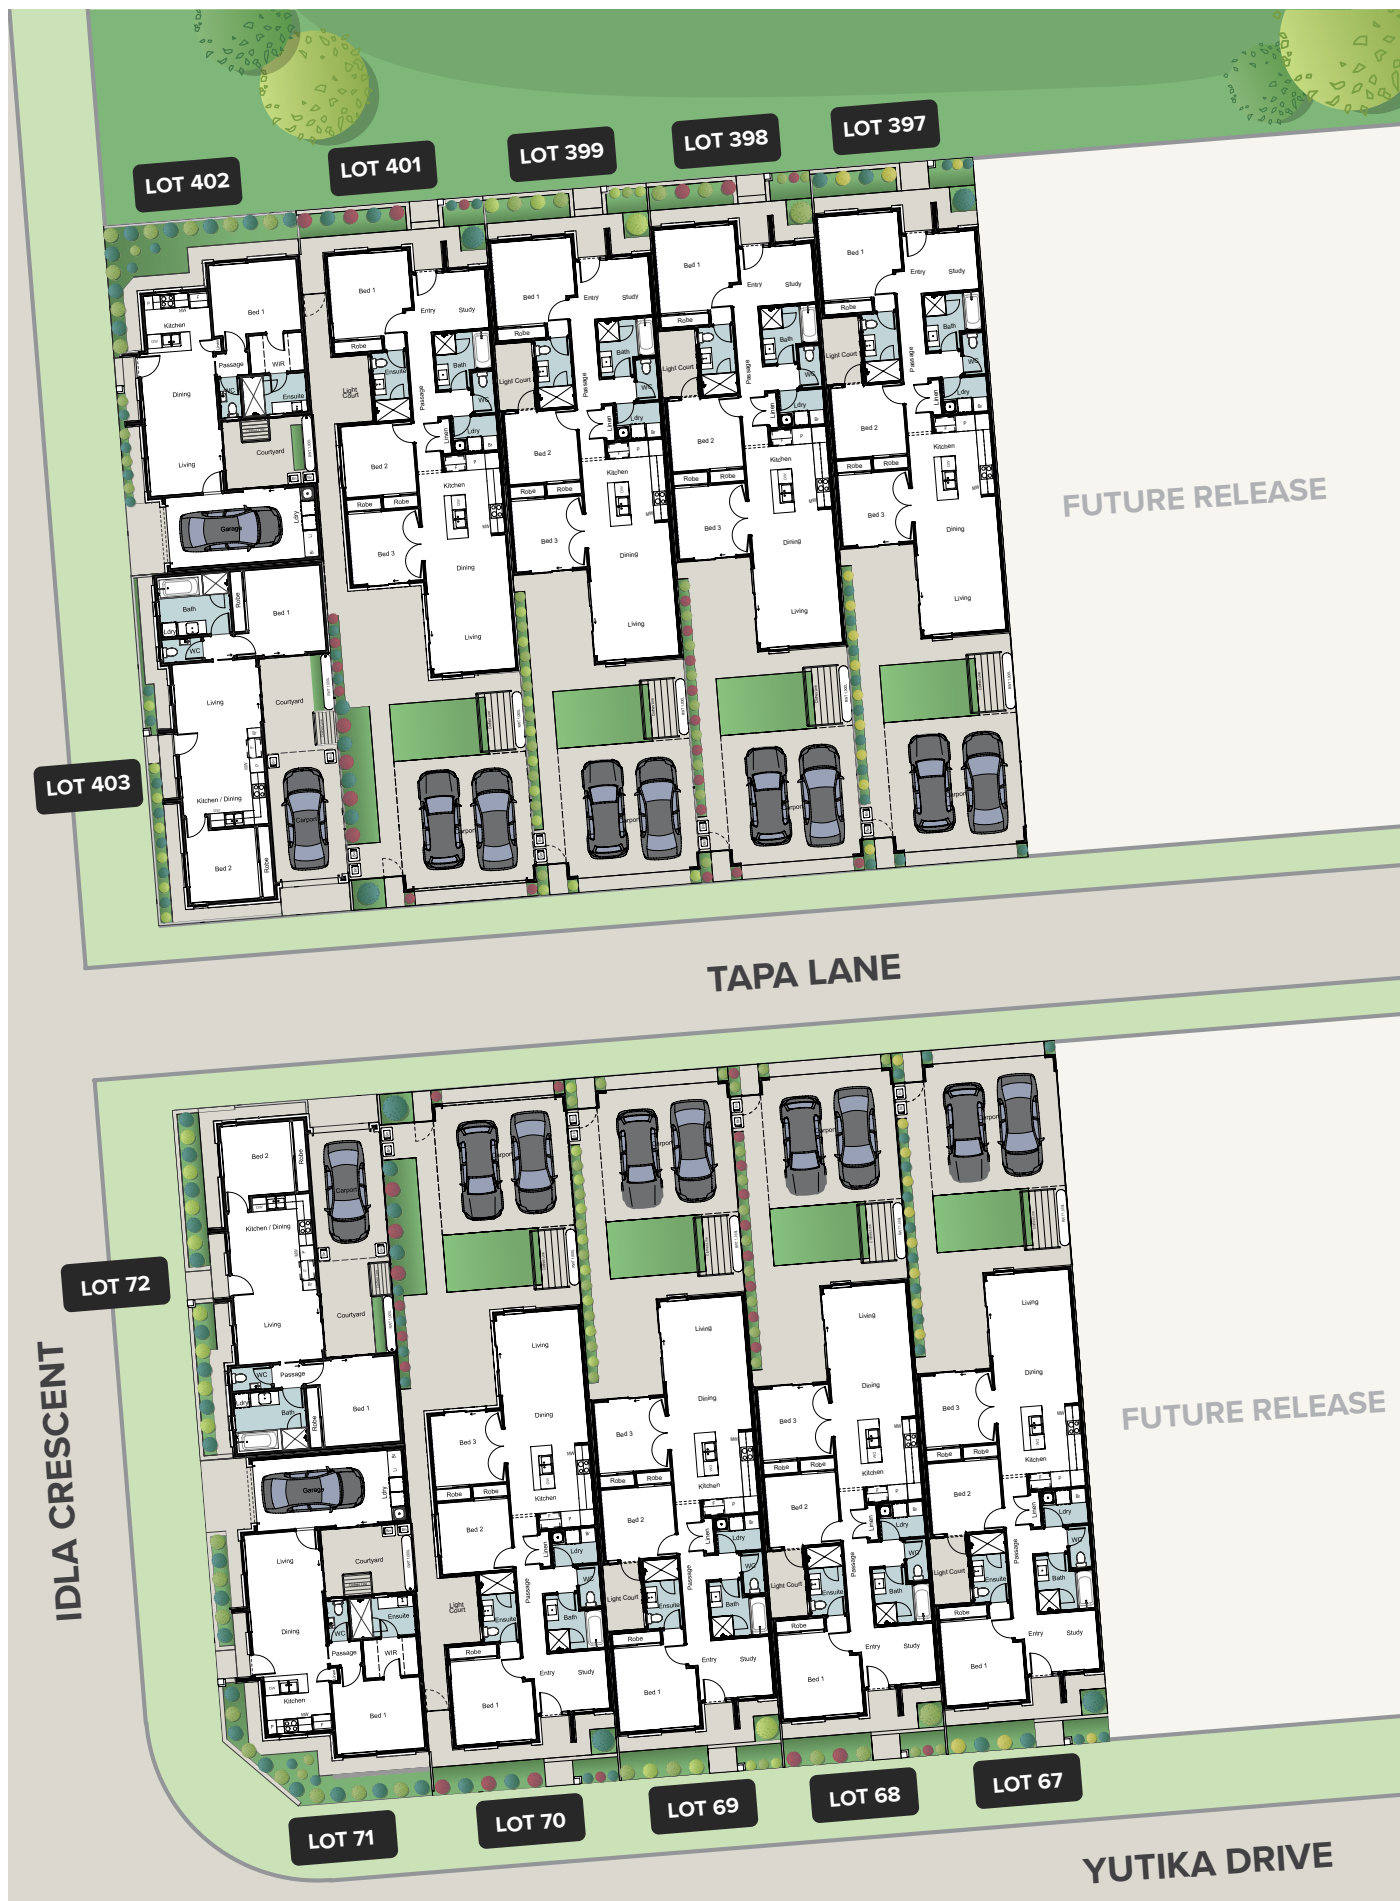

The Fairmont Group was founded in 1966 when it started building new homes – many for first home buyers who had recently migrated to Australia. We employ a dedicated team of professionals and subcontractors, with relationships spanning several generations.

As a further commitment to the local economy, our building materials are sourced from South Australian companies.

Over the past 50 years we have expanded into broad-hectare land division, medium density and infrastructure redevelopment, and have won numerous HIA and UDIA awards. Today, we are SA's most successful privately owned urban development group, while applying our expertise on a national level.
